

Press Release

PEPPERS launches 'Dougle.com' the comedy search engine featuring popular small screen comedians.

Chennai, May 2012: PEPPERS has always been synonymous with fun and entertainment has won the hearts of millions of viewers through its quality and innovative programmes.

'Dougle.com' is a fresh new concept never-before seen on screen. A comedy show that functions like a comedy search engine and incorporates virtually every kind of humour one could conceive – slapstick comedy, standup comedy, parody, satire, mimicry, situational comedy, witty humour, farce, jokes and much more. The programme is to be aired every Sunday from 10 am to 10:30 am.

Dougle.com is all set to be a rip-roaring comedy show that will have you rolling in laughter. With popular comedians like Balaji, Seshu and Manohar ready to tickle you, get ready for a season of side splitting fun and laughter. Every episode will be different and this will give the audience the variety they have been craving for.

The uniqueness of the programme is in that it presents humour spun around our day-to-day activities and some real life incidents that have etched a permanent mark in our memories. This makes it all the more interesting and will keep one engaged.

PEPPERS 'Dougle.com' is designed not to hurt anybody's sentiments and feelings and at the same time, it quenches the thirst of viewers for a humorous programme with a message. In a nutshell, a search engine which ends your search for a hilarious comedy show is Dougle.Com.

Peppers Entertainment Television seeking to redefine entertainment, brings wholesome entertainment that blends together fun, interactivity, talent and knowledge in the right proportion.
